

Long Island society was well represented at the first fox hunt of the season on the estate of James A. Burden at Syosset. The photo shows a group of prominent society women at the start. Below is the pack ready for the chase.

Kadel & Herbert.

One of America's new twelve inch coast defense guns at Fortress Monroe. It is of the disappearing type and is mounted upon a movable carriage.

International.

Queen Marie of Rumania in crown and coronation robes after the ceremony at Alba-julia.

Wide World.

Rafet Pasha (center), newly appointed Governor of Constantinople, entering the city with his staff shortly before the Nationalist decree abolishing the Sultanate.

Pacific and Atlantic.

An aerial view of some of the burning vessels in the river fire which completely destroyed six steamboats in the Ohio at Cincinnati.

Pacific and Atlantic.

Cullen, Navy halfback, skirting Penn State's right end in the game at Washington, in which State sustained its first defeat in three years.

Harris & Ewing.